All concerts take place at the Court of the Wroclaw Arsenal

This year, the Arsenal Nights Festival will again form a series of concerts by a name of The Nations Nights. Some of those nations have not been introduced by us to the Wroclaw audience so far. The Nights of the Lithuanian, Colombian, Portuguese, Finnish and Bulgarian nations will be absolutely premiere ones in our Festival.

The Festival will be opened by the Lithuanian Night, with Lukas Geniušas (known in Poland for taking the 2nd place at the 16th Chopin International Piano Competition in Warsaw, 2010) and will be closed by the Bulgarian Night with admirable Plamena Mangova, the runner-up of the Queen Elizabeth Competition in 2007.

Within these wonderful piano braces, we will experience impressionist motives of Norway, mysteries of Columbia, the hot Spain, melancholic Portuguese fado, and rich culture of Finland. Poland will be represented by the MozART Group with their hilarious programme Frak'n Roll.

As usual, performances will be set in the beautiful courtyard of the Arsenal, amongst monuments of architecture, submerged in the green of nature and sounds of birds. A purpose-built roofing will shelter the audience from rain, and if the temperature falls then we will move to one of Arsenal's halls.

Please feel invited!
