All concerts take place at the Court of the Wrocław Arsenal

At this time of every year, when the summer knocks at our door, we meet at the beautiful courtyard of the historic Wrocław City Arsenal to share the charm of chamber music.

This year there are 5 exceptional concerts ahead of us. We will be able to enjoy performances by the host of the event - the Wratislavia Orchestra - as well by numerous guest stars of the Festival. Amongst the guests of the Arsenal Nights you will be able to meet the highly regarded Polish actor Piotr Machalica, the guitarist Krzysztof Pelech and the German pianist Hinrich Alpers. And it will be a real thrill to welcome at our Festival for the 1st time Danjulo Ishizaka, the sensational cellist of German-Japanese origin.

Danjulo Ishizaka is a true musical personality. He accomplished many musical successes, for example he won the ARD Musical Competition in Munich in 2001. This outstanding artist will perform together with the pianist Hinrich Alpers some beautiful pieces by Beethoven, Elgar and... Chopin (on 8th July).

Our opening concert is something that cannot pass unnoticed. Under the heading "My beloved Młynarski", the brilliant Polish actor Piotr Machalica will perform his interpretations of songs of recently deceased Wojciech Młynarski. Piotr Machalica will bring to them his own unique timbre.

The guitarist Krzysztof Pelech will perform on 5th July together with the Wratislavia Chamber Orchestra. We will listen to his interpretation of one of Vivaldi's concertos, and also to the piece "Jeromita Linares" by Argentinian composer C. Guastavino. The 3rd of the festival nights will belong to a viola: Piotr Reichert with ensemble of Wratislavia musicians will play several creations for viola, for example Clarinet Quintet Op. 115 (rewritten for viola) by J. Brahms. And the hero of the final concert of the Festival (9th July) will be one of your favourite composers, Antonio Vivaldi. Some of his beautiful pieces will be played, including the legendary Four Seasons.
