25.06-04.07.2021

Wrocław, Arsenal Court

Before the concerts and during the intermissions we invite you to coffee and tee served by:

All concerts take place at the Court of the Wrocław Arsenal

After a year-long break due to a pandemic, the "Arsenal Nights" are back! The Festival will traditionally take place at the turn of June and July

The host of "Arsenal Nights", as usual, will be the Wratislavia Chamber Orchestra, whose artistic director is Jan Stanienda. Our concerts take place outdoors, in the courtyard of the historic Wrocław Arsenal, but of course all sanitary safety considerations will be maintained - we trust that our regulations will allow all of you to feel safe at our concerts.

We hope that this year's proposals will allow you to forget the many months of cancelled concerts and banned events. Already the first "Night" on 25 June may surprise with "chamber curiosities" in the programme. Two well-known works - Chopin's Piano Concerto in F minor and Beethoven's Symphony No. 1 in C major - will be performed in chamber versions, where the cast is limited to string instruments only. This results in a different sound of these valued masterpieces. The soloist in Chopin's Concerto will be pianist Mateusz Krzyżowski.

One of the star of the Festival will be Magda Umer. You can meet the mistress of poetic song on 1 and 2 July (Thursday and Friday). We will hear such well-known songs as "Koncert jesienny", "Okularnicy", "Miasteczko Betz", "Ach panie, panowie", "Portofino", "Już czas na sen". On the next day, the Festival will still remain in the realm of poetry, but this time poetry expressed only through the sounds of an instrument. This will be brought about by a performance of the piano duo Duo Granat & Kreda, who will present a selection of compositions by Franz Schubert, the early Romantic master of song.

The fiery Argentine tango will play a special guest at the festival on Wednesday, 30 June, thanks to Astor Piazzolla's "The History of Tango". The Night will be graced by the presence of violinist Roksana Kwaśnikowska and the Woch & Guzik Duo (guitars). On 27 June, the young cellist Piotr Olesz will perform Joseph Haydn's Cello Concerto in C Major (the programme also includes Janiewicz's Divertimento and Haydn's Symphony No. 39). Pianist Krzysztof Stanienda and members of the Wratislavia Orchestra will play chamber works by Beethoven, Saint-Saëns and Schumann (Saturday 26 June). The festival will conclude on 4 July with the music of the Baroque masters. Performed by artists of the Wratislavia Orchestra under the direction of Jan Stanienda, the audience will listen to works by Vivaldi, Telemann, Albinoni and Purcell.
